What a beautiful, amazing, and strong woman God gave us the privilege to have in our lives. Nana you where such a wonderful, funny, kind woman. You will never ever be forgotten. I will always miss your smile, your cooking, your voice, just absolutely everything about you. You where one of Gods most amazing creations. And as your equally as beautiful, amazing, and strong daughter told me, we may love you, but God loves you more. Those words are so very true. And we cant be selfish and want you back here with us, youre in a better place than we are. Feeling so much better than you did here. But we do miss you so very much and we await the day that were reunited with you and God. Dad, Aunt Sue, Uncle Kee, we love yall so very much. We thank yalls mom for being in our life and for loving us, and for giving yall life. She did an amazing job. She was an incredible mother and grandmother. Yall are the most wonderful people Ive ever met, including her. For that Im so grateful to her and her love she had for us. Nana we love you more than anything. I hope the angels know what they have. It seems like everything good is missing since you left. We lost an incredible woman but we will never forget her. Until we meet again we will keep your memories alive and will love you to infinity and beyond. We love you nana!!

Rest easy in paradise grandma Savannah! I wish I had more time with you to have memories to hold tight to my heart but even though we didn't have the traditional grandma/granddaughter relationship you still held and will continue to hold a special place in my heart. Love always Lil Savannah Gardiner-Hollie.

Dear Grandma Savannah, growing up you were one of my best friends. I live so close to you it was easy to drive the 45 minutes to you and spend weekends with you. I am so grateful to have memories with you for every holiday and so many special occasions in my life you were there or you would write me a letter to let me know you were proud of me. You made sure I knew my Gardiner side of my family and you showed me how to be a strong independent woman that stands on her own 2 feet and that demands respect and to love the Lord above all. Grandma Savannah my heart finds comfort in knowing that you know how much I love you! I thank you for being a wonderful grandmother to me thank you for all the memories I have of just you and I as well as with all of our family. You continue to be my motivation I live to represent you and to make you proud. I will find you in the sunshine and I'll see you in my dreams. I love you Grandma Savannah
