Uncle Frank, you were the best Uncle. You touched so many lives. Especially mine. A piece of my heart is now in heaven! You were the backbone to our whole family and a hero to all of us. You will be dearly missed everyday and you will NEVER be forgotten. As selfish as I was being and wanted to keep you here with me, I know you are no longer in pain and you are at peace with Jesus. Save a spot for me cause "Messy Tessy" WILL see you again one day! I love you more than you will ever know! #FlyHigh #RIP

Frank was a very dear cousin to me. My mother often spoke fondly of Frank's father and their entire family. We were blessed to be able to meet you and Bonnie at those family reunions in Frankston, Texas. Frank, you've fought the good fight, you've finished the race. Great is your reward in Heaven with our Savior. I know you're enjoying seeing your folks again, your son, and finally getting all the answers to the Cook family history!! Save us all a place at the table. It will be wonderful when we meet again. Our love and prayers to Bonnie and the family. We love you all.
