My sincere condolences and prayers go out to family. Uncle Joe was very kind and caring towards me and my family, the Lucero's. We contacted him on Facebook when we were being stationed in Ft Polk in late November 2012. Along with Aunty Mary, they would always welcome us to their home. Uncle Joe was good to my big kids. He would often make us laugh and tell jokes too. I miss mowing and cutting the grass and painting the saints. I would have loved to have Uncle Joe as my dad. He would give me good advice before I retired in 2015. My family and I will miss him dearly. Thank you Uncle Joe. Aunty Mary, my family love you dearly too. Thank you and I pray that you and your family will heal and recover soon. The Lucero Family.
