Cleva Letha Pollard Sumney passed on to be with her Lord and Savior on December 20, 2016. To everyone that she met, she was our “Momo”. She was a bright and feisty woman who did not meet a stranger. She spent over ten years working at Walmart as a door greeter, welcoming everyone who she encountered and she left a mark on everyone. She was a spunky lady who spoke her mind. She made sure everyone knew what she was thinking, and passed this trait on to all of her grandchildren. You could not help but love her.

She was survived by her son G.W Sumney Jr. and wife Joyce of Leesville; One Brother J.F. Pollard of Houston. Four Grandchildren: Margaret Bond, Stuart Sumney, Jessica Thompson, and Derland Sumney. Thirteen Great-Grand Children: Miranda Ezell, Lindsey Marks, Jordan Sumney, Kade Martin, Katelynn Martin, Ashton Sumney, Michalya Bond, Tyler Sumney, Krystina Gill, Melanie Thompson, Matthew Thompson, Hunter Thompson, and Jackson Sumney. Eight Great Great-Grand Children: Nate Ezell, Riley Sumney, Libby Marks, Connor and Carter Martin, and Janie Jacobs, Eli and Madlynn Sumney.

I'm so very sorry to hear of the loss of Cleve. I worked with her at Morgan & Lindsey store back in 1972 and longer. She was such a fun person to be around. We went to lunch each day at the Leesville Cafe and always had the best time. I know she will be truly missed by all. RIP Cleve. Della (Borel) Floyd
