Charles was a wonderful caring man and I hold great memories of him always smiling and joking, he never met a stranger. I will continue to keep your families in my prayers. Heaven certainly gained a special man.

Mr. Green has always been part of some of our family's fondest memories by helping us buy our first home (in a subdivision he built). Charles was always an upbeat and genuine person which helped numerous others to also reach their dreams. We will keep his family in our prayers during this time.
