I knew Mr. Norman for most of my life. I can remember him as my barber growing up. I always looked forward to getting a hair cut but not for the hair cut. I learned a lot of things about life just listening to him and others while in the barber shop. He and my dad would talk the whole time I was there. Every time I reflect back on these memories, I am refreshed. He will always be a vivid part of my memories due to the impression that he left upon me at such an early age. I wanted to share a loving thought even though a little time has passed. Pat, I know what it's like to lose a dad. I feel for you and want to share my condolences. Mrs. Wertz, I don't mean to leave you out either. I have seen my mom deal with the loss of a husband, and it is challenging. May God give you peace and serenity during the trying times. Thanks for sharing him with me.
