Paul was such a sweet guy in school. Enduring smile. Gorgeous eyes. I lost touch with him after graduation. I was glad to be in town visiting my parents and was able to attend the service on Sunday on the way out of town. It was clear that Paul (Craig) kept his sweet spirit after graduation and was loved by many. I will be praying for his family. I lost a son this year and I know their pain. I got comfort from the news that Paul was a Christian and hope that you can get comfort from that fact too. We have hope to see our sons one day in a much better place.

High school wouldn't have been the same without Paul. For some reason we called each other by our mothers's names. So he was Clara Ann. He was responsible for my first date. He had his best friend take me to Homecoming. He was a funny guy and will be missed.

To Taylor and Conner:I am so sorry to hear of your father's death. I have never met either of you but I knew your dad in high school. He was my first-ever boyfriend and so he will always be a very special person in my heart. I'm sure you have heard many fun stories of your dad in his younger years. They're all true! Paul loved to have fun and make people laugh. All the time! I hope both of you inherited some of his fun personality. He was well-liked in school by classmates and teachers. He was kind to everyone. Your family is in my prayers in the upcoming days and weeks as you deal with this huge loss at such young ages. Hold on to your good memories of your father!

To Mr. And Mrs. Harlow,My heart is filled with sadness for you over Paul Craig's death. It's almost too much to believe that two of the kindest, most welcoming people I've ever met, will bury another son. If pain and sorrow could be divided and shared, you have many folks that would take some of the burden. I'm am so sorry for your loss and your pain. I have many fond memories of Paul, my first love, and many good times to reflect on tonight. As you can imagine, Paul will always have a piece of my heart. Your home was a favorite place for me to visit and I cherish the time I got to spend with all of you. I will keep you close in my prayers in the coming days..
