Mae Ann Owen White

AUG 22, 1961 - JAN 25, 2015

Mae Ann Owen White entered her eternal rest and went to be with the Lord Jesus on the morning of the 25th of January, 2015.

Mrs. White was a resident of Leesville and Vernon Parish. She was born in New Orleans, Louisiana on August 22, 1961. The older child of Chester Creighton and Gloria Leach Owen, Mae Ann spent nearly her entire life in Leesville. Mae Ann was a 1979 graduate of Leesville High School where she was active in many activities, including the Leesville High School Band and the Nine Club. She was an inaugural member of the Golden Cavalier Dance line when the group was formed during the 1976-77 school year. In 1979, Mae Ann won the Vernon Parish Junior Miss Pageant, competing in and representing Vernon Parish in the state competition, placing second in the talent competition.

After high school, Mrs. White attended college and was graduated from Northwestern State University with bachelor and master's degrees in education. Upon completion of college, Mae Ann began work in the Vernon Parish School system, which would be her life-long vocation. She taught at Leesville Junior High School and eventually transitioned to Leesville High School, where she became the librarian. During her time on faculty at LHS, Mae Ann was involved in countless activities, pouring her life into the school and most importantly the students of her alma mater. She assisted with the LHS Band, choir and sponsored the LHS Quiz Bowl Team. Mae Ann was heavily involved in annual and pivotal events at LHS such as the Homecoming Assembly and spring plays; she took on all tasks, including everything from designing and constructing sets to choreographing dance routines.

Mae Ann was a decades-long student and later instructor at the Stevens School of Dance and Joan Kathey Dance Studios. From the age of three through her early 50s, Mae Ann was active in the practice and instruction of the art of dance. She touched the lives of many students and families in her area of greatest passion.

Mae Ann has been a blessing to our family her entire life. She and my mother laughed themselves to tears countless times at the end of long, tiring days at the dance studio. Mae Ann is a staple of my childhood memories, and she has continued to extend blessings of kindness, friendship, and help to my mom and dad in their older years. Though separated for a moment in time, the reunion with her will be that much sweeter when we awaken together in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. God bless and keep you in His care.
