My words stumble, and my thoughts are not clear. One thing I do know is that you are father and I, your daughter. To say I will miss you is a understatement. You are with poppy now, watching over us all. May you rest easy now.... Sarah xoxox

To all of Robin's family - I pray for your comfort and peace during this hard time. I have loved Robin since the 7th grade. I can still remember dancing with him at Imogene Baker's party. We have connected many times over the years and I am deeply saddened by his passing. Even though we only saw each other occasionally after our paths took different directions, it was always like the friendship was the same. I met his daughter once and he met three of my children who remember him well. I am so very sorry for your loss. May God's peace sustain you all. Anne
