John,I know there is no way to ease the pain that you and your family are feeling right now. Some people may say, "be strong," but I say allow yourself to feel what you're feeling. You suffered a big loss, and you're allowed to hurt and process it in your own way and on your own time line. With each teardrop, there is healing not weakness.I am so very sorry that you all are going through this difficult time. My heart truly breaks for all of you, especially the children. Lean on each other in these dark days. May God bless you all!
