I was a schoolmate of all of Brother Duke's and Mrs. Maggie's children, Judy, Jackie, Lloyd and David, and a classmate of Lloyd's. I remember when their family owned the general store on the Cravens highway. As kids, my cousins and I would walk up there in the summer heat and trade several Coke bottles for the 2 cents deposit, then spend the money on another Coke. That had to be a headache for them. But, Brother Duke and Mrs. Maggie were patient souls and treated us kids with kindness. Judy, Lloyd, and David, I have a lot of fond memories of our association as children and through the years. Jane and I are sorry for your loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers. Kent Gill
