Rebecca, the daughter of Joe and Diana Kloiber was born November 22, 2007, in Clarksville, TN. She passed away Tuesday, September 10th in Houston, Texas.

Rebecca passed away after a brief illness. She was loved and will be missed.

Rebecca was a ray of sunshine. She always had a smile on her face. She smiled so hard it hurt. She loved to be outdoors, running, playing with her friends, collecting rocks and feathers, chasing chickens and riding horses. She loved picking flowers. She loved her Big Sister and her Big, Big Sister! She loved animals, especially her doggies and kitties. She loved her teachers and all of her friends at First Assembly Christian Academy. She loved to sing and dance and she didn't care where she was. Her biggest goal in life was to go to Kindergarten and ride the school bus!

Rebecca is survived by her mommy and daddy, Joe and Diana Kloiber, her Big Sister, Anna Kloiber, and her Big, Big sister Sarah Kloiber; her Grandma Rose and Grandpa Larry DiCostanzo of Staten Island, NY; Grandma Marie Stewart of Rochester, NY; Grandma Laura and Grandpa Joe Kloiber of Staten Island, NY; Her Leesville Grandparents --Mike and Sandy Flatt, Barbara Flatt and Anne Light; and a whole host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends that she loved completely and unconditionally. Our hearts are broken. Rebecca was too good to be true.

Hey, It is with a very sad heart that I am writing to you. It's hard to understand why God didn't allow Rebecca to have a good outcome but we don't know all the reasons for things. I loved her pictures and her little personality that we saw through them. I am praying and will continue to pray for your family that you will be comforted in this time. I know she was a huge part of your life and she will always be missed. Take care of yourselves and hold each other tight.

Dear Rebecca and family, I realize that I didn't know you but, today, as I struggled to read your obituary for the KVVV Gospel News segment, I found myself holding back tears for your all-too-soon departure from our world. I know that you are in a better place now, where God almighty plays tag with you in fields of gold; where sunlight is always on your face and where pain is no more. I will pray for the comfort that only God can provide for your family. God bless you, sweet child.

To the Kloiber family, I never met little Rebecca, but from the outpouring of love I have seen, she was a darling little girl, who spread love and smiles wherever she went, to whoever she met. There are no words to take away the pain, only the expressions of love that come your way to comfort you, and to let you know you are not grieving alone. Rebecca has certainly earned her angel wings, and will watch over you all now, until you see her again in heaven. Love you all, and God bless, Your cousin
