Brother Johnson...You spoiled us at Greater Bethel! Especially the Children and "Lovely Ladies" as you always called us! You were and will always be very near and dear to our hearts. So much was learned from your life history that you willingly shared, and for that we are truly blessed. I enjoyed your input in Sunday School and thank you for giving your words of wisdom. Miss you, my Brother! Praise be to God for our paths crossing at this point of my journey. Miss you. Love you! Thank you!

I had only known Mr. Johnson for a short time via our church, but it seemed like I had known him for years. He will be truly missed, but "Ole Soldier's never die". God bless.A Veteran Myself/USA/ANC (LTC)
