Janie Williams posted:

I want to express my sincere condolences to the children and siblings of Sandy. My name won't mean anything to you, but I bowled with Sandy on the Boise Belle's league in the late 70s and early 80s. Like most of us wives back then, the day didn't end with the end of the games, but continued on in DeRidder for lunch and just visiting. I enjoyed those times. I know Sandy's passing will take a lot of love and time to be able to gain peace, and I pray for God's blessings on all of you now. Janie Spicer Williams
