Aunt Wanda, he will surely be missed by all. He would always talk to me and Bethany at her basketball games. He even went to watch her play at Rapides. I am so sorry for your loss. Mom would have gone if her health would be good. Sorry that Bethany and I could not attend the services. Lisa Granger LeJeune Contact Me

To Wanda and family, first and foremost, how sorry I am for your loss of Chuck. His love for ya'll was always a constant in our conversations and how blessed he was to have ya'll and call you family. To my Chuckles, just want to thank you again for all the joys and memories we made playing all those volleyball games. Those were and are some of the best times of my life. You will always remain in my heart and soul. You may be gone but never forgotten. I will love you always!
