Frankie Rayh Reischling

DEC 13, 1976 - FEB 5, 2013

Memorial services for Frankie Rayh Reischling will be held at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday, February 12, 2013, at Labby Memorial Funeral Home Chapel in Leesville. Services are under the direction of Labby Memorial Funeral Home of Leesville.

Visitation will be held from 1 p.m. – until service time Tuesday, February 12th, at the funeral home.

Frankie Rayh Reischling, 36, of New Llano, passed away Feb. 2 at his residence. He is survived by his wife, Stephanie; parents, Sheila Cox, of Green Acres, Fla., Frank and Kimberly Reischling, of Anacoco; and sisters Rachel Reischling and Katie Kapotsy.

Frankie was a loving husband, son, brother and uncle. He loved life, loved to laugh and to eat good food. He possessed an ingrained warrior spirit and was a natural caretaker — he fought bitterly for those he loved and would do anything he could to encourage a friend in need.

Frankie also possessed a generous spirit; what he had, he shared with others to the fullest extent.

Love is Frankie's ultimate legacy. He loved strongly, deeply, and his love lasted, despite pain, hurt, or anger. Such qualities, always in short supply, will bear him well in the journey he now takes ahead of us all.

Sorry to hear of the lost of Mr. Reischling. The Bible tells us "Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you.". One of the principal ways to draw close to God is thorough prayer. Do not underestimate its value!

So very sorry to learn of your loss of Frankie. I can still remember where he sat in my 7th grade science class at LJHS. Some students leave a lasting impression on teachers, and he was one of those for me. His smile is just one small part of those memories. May God be with you.
