Even after all this time, it's still impossible to believe that I can't pick up the phone to talk to my dear friend Brenda. I miss our friendship and treasure special memories made at Ft Polk. However, I am appreciative of the fact that I have gotten to know Missy through Facebook, where I enjoy her family pictures. It is easy to see Brenda reflected in the mother that is seen in Missy every day. Brenda lives on and Missy keeps her with us as she duplicates the special nuances of her sweet mother. Chub and Missy - thank you for sharing Brenda with all of us. I continue to miss her and I continue to keep her family in my prayers.

I grew up with Brenda in the First Christian Church. You could hear her all over the church whenever she giggled. I returned back to the church and found out about her death the day after she was buried. I'm so sorry that I was not there to share in honoring her life. Please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss.

May God comfort you, her wonderful family whom she loved so dearly. Tears are streaming down my face now as I try to write this. I was so saddened when I saw her beautiful face in the paper this morning. I was blessed to meet Brenda when our hospital unit was activated during Operation Desert Storm. She was my friend at once and we have kept in touch over the years. My prayers go out to you. God Bless and keep you. Donna McNeill, Baton Rouge, LA Contact Me
