Tom and I were talking yesterday and remembering all of the good times we had together playing cards; going to the club and remembering the time she fell and Tom told her to get up who told you to take a break and you Paul laying over the hood of your car passed out along with many other good times. I will miss talking to her and even at times are little arguments as you know we loved her. Paul you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers not only today, tomorrow put always. Take care of yourselves and god bless you all. Paul keep in touch with us.
