she was the best little sister i every had but we lost her but she is trying her wigs out and god is letting her fly he took all the pain from her and put her in a better place and she is watching over us so is god . Love my baby sister and always well she was the best thing ever she was the heart of everyone but we will miss her but shes well always be in our heart . God took her out to make her have no pain but she is the best little sister ever but we love her and we love god she change a lot but shes in heaven but she is not hurting anymore for that I'm happy. Think you for who was there and helped us out when we needed you . think you all
