Mrs. Margie, I was so sorry when my mom told me Mr. Roger was sick and in the hospital. My favorite memories of him are from forty years ago when I was a little girl in Leesville, and he was always so kind to me. My dad always respected and loved him too. He'll always hold a special place in my heart, and you will be in my prayers.

To the family of Mr. Roger Morris:\r\nPlease accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dad, husband, brother, uncle and friend. Death is something that we all face sooner or later in life. Sickness affects each one of us in different ways and sometimes causes us to die. It is good for us to give way to tears just as Jesus Christ did when he heard about his best friend, Lazarus, passing away. When Jesus found out that he passed away, he \"gave way to tears.\" You wouldn't think a perfect man would feel that type of emotion but he deeply loved and cherish his friendship with Larazus. Even though Jesus had the ability to bring Larazus back to life, he felt the emotions that we do today when someone we love dies. We have the hope of seeing our loved ones again. God promised that he would call all the rigeous and unrighteous out of the memorial tombs and death would be no more. (John 5:28,29)\r\nI hope I've given you some comforting thoughts to help you cope at this difficult time in your life. We all can pray and ask for help to cope with our loss. From a very sincere Bible Student.
