I spoke with your Father this summer for a while. As always, I enjoyed his smile and conversation. Seems like I ran into him almost every time I went back Home.

Jimmy, Michael and family,\r\nSo sorry to read of your Dad's passing. I remember the flower shop but was not aware that your Dad had been in the funeral business like my Dad. No wonder he & Dad had so much in common. Jimmy it was great seeing you last fall and Michael you and I only live 20 mins. apart. Just sorry that you all had to have a sad start to the new year. I am also extending condolences from my mother, Carrie Rayford and my brother, John. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Claire
