My heart goes out to Margie and Uncle Bobby's daughters. May God comfort and heal all the family, keeping them under his wing. You are in our prayers. Uncle Bobby was a very, special loving person. I did not get to be around him as much as I would have liked to. You knew you were loved when he was with you. I loved his laughter and stories. He was very special to my mother, Doris Curry Clyburn. My husband only met him once but they became instant friends, laughing and swapping stories. Uncle Bobby, you will be missed, but with us in our hearts forever.
