I am so sorry to hear of Gregg's passing. All those who loved him are in my prayers for peace and comfort. I have many happy memories of growing up on Marvin Avenue and the Terrell family living a few houses down from my family were part of those happy days. We also shared fun times growing up together in First Baptist Church. May you all find happiness in your memories of Gregg in the days and years to come.\r\n\r\nLinda Johnson Crane

My deepest sympathies to the family. I grew up with Gregg and attended school with him through graduation. He was always a very nice person and fun to be around. I loved his mother dearly. I worked with her at the telephone company when I graduated high school. May he RIP.\r\n\r\nConnie Racusin

Sharyn, Gwen and family, I am so terribly sorry to hear of Gregg's passing. I have known Gregg since the 2nd grade thru graduation and beyond. It is unimaginable that he has been taken so quickly when I just chatted with him on FB early last month. Our birthdays are less than two weeks apart. As others, I shared so many child-hood memories with him. Although we did not get to see each other except at class reunions, he will truly be missed in my heart. With friends and family, I know God will grant you all peace going through these next weeks. You all have my sincerest condolences during these trying days. Gregg you will be missed. Sincerely, Claire
