Viva Sue Stephens

FEB 16, 1922 - OCT 24, 2011

Funeral services celebrating the life of Viva Sue Stephens, 89, will be held at 2:00 P.M. Wednesday, October 26, 2011, at Pleasant View Baptist Church in Hornbeck, Louisiana. Rev. Kenneth Baggs and Rev. Buddy Airhart will be officiating. Interment will follow in Prewitt's Chapel Cemetery. Visitation will be at the church Tuesday, October 25, 2011, from 5:00 P.M. until time of service Wednesday.

Sue passed away at her home in Hornbeck after a courageous battle with cancer. Sue was born February 16, 1922, in Guntersville, Alabama, to Andrew Mack and Myra Jane Sims.

She was an awesome wife and mother and the best Granny ever. She had a great love for her God, church, family and friends, and most of all her sweetheart of 63 years, Edd.

Sue was an avid gardener and loved her house plants. She was a retired seamstress from Kemah, Texas, where she designed and assembled her own patterns of sails for racing sailboats all over the world. She designed and quilted several quilts over the years for her family and friends that we will be able to enjoy for many years to come.

After her retirement she helped take care of her grandchildren, great grandchildren and great great grandchildren with love and care.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Edd Stephens, her parents, and three sisters, Thelma, Lorene and Billie.

She is survived by three daughters, Martha Evans, Yvonne White, Robbie Browning and husband James of Hornbeck, LA; two sons, Chuck Stephens and wife Rouxanne of Gautier, MS, and Flash (Mike) Stephens and wife Juanda of Anacoco; her grandchildren, Marshall Evans of Grove Oak, Alabama, Brian Evans of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Rob Gierman of Katy, Texas, Michelle Fisher of New Castle, Oklahoma, Melonie Stephens of Gautier, MS, and Jackie Clark, Susie

Although we have never met, I am deeply saddened by your loss. We all are touched by the loss of a loved one. Please know that God will be with you to comfort and soothe your heart. Psalms 34:18 says that He is near to those broken at heart and saves those crushed in spirit. Always remember the promises found in His Holy Word. Please accept my sincere condolences.
