Patti and Todd, I am sorry to learn of the passing of your father. From the obituary it appears he led an active life for many years and probably had great stories to tell and when you recall those, I'm sure you will smile. I wish you the best and the blessing of Our Lord as you move forward. Both of you take care.\r\n\r\nJanie Stailey Williams (former nurse, Westvaco Corporation)

Patti Lea, I am so sorry to hear of your Dad's passing as I know Mother will be when I tell her tonight. We both have lots of good memories with your family. You will be in our thoughts and prayers and that God grants you the strength to get through the next few days. I wish we were closer in miles to be there for you. With all our love, Claire, Carrie & John M.
