I just wanted to say thanks to everyone that has signed the guest book. Over the past few days I have realized how much the little things mean and your words give us comfort. Papa was the greatest man I have ever known and I miss him greatly. He was my best friend and I will never forget the heart he had, because I don't look anything like him but the kindness in our hearts are the same. Alot of my personality comes from him. I love you Papa and you will always be in my heart and mind. I will make you proud.
