Funeral services for Doreen Jett Cannon, 84, of Anacoco, Louisiana will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, February 13, 2011 at East Leesville Baptist Church in Leesville with the Rev. Gil Arthur officiating. Burial will follow in the Oak Grove Cemetery in Hornbeck, LA under the direction of Labby Memorial Funeral Home of Leesville.

Visitation will be held from 2 pm - 9 pm, Saturday, February 12, 2011 at the funeral home and on Sunday, February 13, 2011 from 1 pm until time of service at the church.

Doreen was born January 8, 1927 in Leicester, England, the daughter of Frank Charles and Iris Eden Margaret Little Kendell.

Growing up in England, Doreen was a city girl through and through. Leicester was a modern city with modern conveniences. Doreen was used to the hustle and bustle of city life, and also the luxury of electricity and indoor plumbing. Imagine Doreen's dismay upon her arrival in Hornbeck, LA in 1953 as the new bride of John David Jett, Sr. to find electricity and indoor plumbing were still a few years away, and the hustle and bustle of the city a thing of the past. But, like a true pioneer, this city girl turned country girl, adjusted to her new life and made Hornbeck her home.

Doreen was a retired LPN. She worked for many years at the Heritage Manor Nursing Home in Many, LA. Doreen cherished spending time with her family and friends. She was a very faithful member of the East Leesville Baptist Church especially in the "Sisters in Christ" Sunday School, and she loved going to the Leesville Senior Center.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband John David Jett, Sr and her grandson, Steven Jett.

She is survived by her sons, David James and Alice Jett of Bossier City and Johnny and Judy Jett of Hornbeck; daughters, Carol Jett Andre and husband Jack of DeRidder and Kathy Mitchell and

Though I do not know any of your children & Grandchildren, I had the pleasure of meeting your sweet Mother back in the mid 70's shortly after she & my Mother, Sallie \"Tweetie\" Johnson graduated LPN School. I shall never forget having Tea that Saturday and the sweet spirit she & my own Mother shared. Know that the days ahead will bring sweet memories to help you sustain your loss. My God Richly bless each of you. Paula Jeans
