Rev. William D. Daily

NOV 25, 1940 - SEP 18, 2010

Rev. William David Daily, 69, passed from this life on Saturday, September 18, 2010 at The Woodlands Healthcare Center, Leesville, LA. He was an Apostolic minister and was recently retired as Pastor of Apostolic Faith Tabernacle, Leesville, LA.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Joel Daniel and Lillie Ann Burnett Daily, brother Robert Joel Daily and sister Rebecca "Becky" LaTayne Daily.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years Pamela Daily, one son, Wade (Heather Santos) Daily of Anacoco; 3 daughters, Brenda Johnson & Beth (Randall) Martin of Anacoco and Roxanne (Chris) Clemens of Lufkin, TX; 10 grandchildren, Cody Martin, Tyson (Maui) Clemens, Caitlin Martin, Tori Clemens, Heather Clemens, Brandon Clemens, Jozie Castillo, Karington Johnson, Ashlee Daily, Jayla Daily and 4 great-grandchildren, Safe Clemens, William "Will" Clemens, Tessa Martin and one unborn.

Home-Going services for Bro. Daily will be held Wednesday, September 22, 2010 at 1:00 pm at Apostolic Faith Tabernacle. His body will lie in state at the church from 4:00 pm -10:00 pm on Tuesday, September 21st and Wednesday, from 11:00 am until time of service. The services will be presided over by Rev's Ryan McNeely, C.R. Bayham, Glenn Burgess, Tim Thompson, Billy Herrington and Paul Mettlen. Burial will follow in the Good Hope Cemetery in Anacoco, Louisiana under the direction of Labby Memorial Funeral Home of Leesville.

Bro. Daily was born November 25, 1940 in Ragley, LA, although he spent most of his formative years in Oakdale, LA. His summers were spent riding horses in the woods around Ragley with his maternal grandfather. His love for horses remained until his death.

Bro. Daily joined the U.S. Army in September 1958, completing basic training at Fort Chaffee, Arkansas. He was then assigned to White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico where he met the love of his life, Pamela Yaryan. They were married on June 4, 1960. After his discharge, they moved back to Louisiana and remained until 1968.

In September of that year, Bro. Daily moved his young family, which now consisted of 4 children, to Lynnwood, WA, to assist in establishing a brand-new Apostolic church. They remained there until November 1980 when he felt called to evangelistic work. After holding a revival in Leesville, he assumed the pastorate of Apostolic Faith Tabernacle on May 15, 1981. He retired shortly before his death.

Through the years, Bro. Daily worked as a department store assistant manager, pipefitter and welder. But more than all these, he enjoyed preaching, which he began to do in 1968. Throughout his 42 years of ministry, he is probably most proud of the young men he helped form and who went on to become ministers of the gospel themselves.

Bro. Daily wrote numerous gospel songs through the years and blessed many people with them. Several of them will be used in his funeral service.

He will be truly missed by his family, church family and the Anacoco/Leesville, community.

Pallbearers: Wade Daily, Tyson Clemens, Brandon Clemens, Chris Clemens, Randall Martin, Mitch Trahan

Honorary Pallbearers: Safe Clemens, Tim Daily, Jeff Daily, Richard Slaughter, James Day

Daddy,
You are forever my hero. I miss you so much already, but I take comfort in the memories and countless talks we had. I know this is not really goodbye, it's just until we meet again. My love for you is eternal. Beth

Dear Precious Daily Family,
I am so saddened by the death of Bro. Daily. Only God knows the all and we know He truly loved the Lord. May you be comforted in knowing that we shall see him again on that Great Homecoming Day when we all shall be with the Lord. He is in the arms of a Loving Savior, who loves you all. I love and am praying for all of you. God bless You all through this most difficult time in your lives. He is your strength. Trust Him.
Yours truly,
