Jason, \r\n I am so sorry for your loss. Alex was a such a great boy. He definatly loved his dad, and it was quiet obvious that you loved him. I remember the first time I met you and the boys. We were at Pops, and you had grabbed Alex in a headlock and kissed him all ovet the face and head. I was awed at your expression of love toward your son. You and your boys will remain in my prayers.\r\nLove and Sympathy,Wendy Strickland

Alex, you have no idea how much we will miss you. Even though you were miles away you were still in our hearts and it was always good to see you. My heart hurts so much at the fact you were taken so soon from our lives but now you're no longer in pain, nor are you homesick. It's still hard to accept that your gone but I have a peace in my heart knowing that God had a plan for you and you are now with our father.
