Dear Valerie, It has been so very long that you may not even remember me. You were in my first grade class. I recognized the picture of your mother and her name as soon as I read the notice in the newspaper. I just want to tell you I'm so sorry for your loss. I lost my dad a few years ago, and it seems to really leave a hole in your heart. I remember you fondly, send my condolences to you and your family, and hope you are well. Sending my love and care.

Frank, it was truly a privilege to know Mary Ann. It's been a while since I've lived in DeRidder but one does not forget people like you and Mary Ann. I was honored to attend the special wedding anniversary you had at the KC hall and I'll never forget the slide show put together by your children to the tune of "What a wonderful life." It still makes me want to cry when I remember Mary Ann seeing it for the first time and realizing her immortality, as well as her legacy. Take care of yourself. \r\n\r\nJanie
