Brandi, please know that I would have been with you tonight if I did not just have my shoulder surgery yesterday. Surgery went well just can't travel any distance yet. Here's a big hug from me just for you and two little hugs for Savannah & Melissa. My pastor would always say that grandchildren are the "grace" principle! Your Dad could not have loved you and the girls more than he did, even if he tried. This tremendous love will be softened knowing he is pain free and already in Glory, and all those sweet precious memories each of you have. You will all be in my constant thoughts and prayers today, tomorrow and in the days and weeks ahead. God bless you and uphold you in his precious right hand. love ya, Cheryl Ray
