Dear Anderson Children,\r\n\r\nPlease accept my condolences in the loss of sweet Mrs. Marjorie....You kids may not remember me, but I truly loved your Mom throughout my school years....I was Susan Werner, daughter of Winston and Adele Werner....Mike and I went to LSU...Please know that God had need of an angel ASAP, and called your Mom home....TRUST we will be reunited one day....it's just that she has beaten us there! I lost my Mama in Oct. of '08, and buried a son in '07, and trust me....the sun will shine again, and the tears will turn to smiles of happy memories.\r\nGod bless all of you...\r\n\r\nSusan Werner Tylock

Mrs. Bailey, Anderson then, was my mentor when I went to Leesville H.S. as band director. She was always so kind, gracious and she helped me so much. I have great memories of Mrs. Bailey, and of Mr. Bill Bailey too. She was such a fine lady. My sympathies to her family and friends.

I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: \"I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.\" So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isasiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie
