We would like to express our sincere sympathy for the loss of Buddy. In times like this I've found it very comforting to relay on God's word to help cope, because sometimes the pain seems to hard to bear. But scriptures like Rev 21:4 that reads \"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.\" can give us all real hope for the future and can help us cope a little with the loss.

I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: \"I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.\" So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

Dear Joyce; We got your notice yesterday of Leroy's death. We are so sorry to hear it. We were reminiscing about when we first met you and Leroy, and decided it must have been in Basalt. We'll always remember your hospitality to us when we moved into Slater, Mo. It sounds as if you'll have a full life surrounded by children and grand children. Stay strong and remember that God loves you and so do we! Thanks again for letting us know. It means a lot to us. Love, Dallas and June Harding
