Crickett and Ethel were one of the few relatives I knew. We always stayed at their house when my mother, Retha Pollard Bone, visited Louisiana. You could always count on Ethel to make you feel welcome, feed you until you were ready to explode, and always be there if you needed her. She and I had plans to look over some of the old family pictures and tell stories this spring. I'm sorry, Aunt Ethel, that I didn't make it to see you. I will miss you.

I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons
