I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

There are no words for my feelings of shock, sorrow, and love for you, Darvis, Derrick, and Jeffery. I am in disbelief. I am flooded with memories of "us". We were closer than friends. We were all family. Raising the 4 boys together since birth says a lot, but how we have lived, laughed, and loved for 30 years says it all. Mere words are of little comfort at this time, but rest assured that I remain that friend that cares and hurts the most for you guys. Brenda, Derrick, and Jeffery....please find some comfort in the guarantee that you (we) will all be reunited one day...God was in need of an angel, ASAP, and called Darvis now....we WILL meet in Heaven....it's just that he has beaten us there. Maybe Luke will stay by him until that day comes. I love you beyond words, and ache for your family...always know, unspoken....I LOVE YOU.
