David was always one of the sweetest happiest people I ever knew. He was genuine in every way. Never met a stranger and never had a bad word to say about anyone ever. He'd give you the shirt off your back and Mike, Hubie and I all loved him. He was the same from childhood to adulthood. Just always sweet and kind and he loved animals. I know our Mom was sitting there with open arms waiting on him. We were all lucky to know him and have him in our family.

The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now\into someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love. With Sincerest Sympathy

I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Cortinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: \"I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.\" So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

David, I miss you every day. Not a day has gone by that I haven't thought of you, growing up with a very protective brother wasn't always easy. But it was good that we always knew you were there for us. And us for you without fail. You are loved and missed every day big brother. Rest in peace. I'll see you again.

David my son, it's been 12 years and 4 months since that early morning phone call, 3:00am on the 15th of March 2008. I've experienced loss with losing my husband, a brother, a sister and our mother and in 2015 we lost another brother. Loss of loved ones is part of love life, but it doesn't make it easier to deal with. My heart was broken the morning I lost you, that piece is with you in heaven. I pray Art, your dad Butch and my ther, Jerry and Jody are with you. Mother rocking and watching all of you fishing. I love and miss you with every breath, mom 🍷
