DeRidder, Louisiana

Reba Faye Hurtado

Reba Faye Hurtado, 87, passed away Monday, March 8, 2010, in Rapides Regional Medical Center in Alexandria, LA. Graveside services will be Wednesday, March 10, 2010, at Beauregard Cemetery in DeRidder, LA, with Rev. J. C. Skinner officiating. Burial will follow under the direction of Labby Memorial Funeral Home in DeRidder. Visitation will be from 11 A.M. until 12:45 P.M., Wednesday, March 10, 2010, in Labby Memorial Funeral Home in DeRidder. Mrs. Hurtado was born to Charles Frank and Keitha Watson Campbell in Old Hoy, Louisiana, on October 27, 1922. After living in several different areas of the country, she returned to the Bundick Lake, Louisiana, area in 1975. She was a retired accountant and homemaker. She leaves to cherish her memory her husband of 65 years, Robert J. Hurtado; son, Robert J. Hurtado, II of Westlake, Louisiana; two grandchildren, Heather and Tonya; two great grandchildren, Webb and Dilan; and sister, Iris Knotts of Natchitoches, Louisiana.

I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.

Sincerely, Ms. Simmons
