Family, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I am the granddaughter of Hazel Farquhar and have fond memories of visiting Pearl when I was younger. The old people (anchors ) of our lives are getting small in numbers. I am grateful to take with us a basket full of kind, loving memories, where family was the center of our lives in a much slower paced world.\r\n\r\nI can just imagine what heaven must be, filled with all of their sweet spirits! I will keep your family in my prayers ! Let us not forget those life lessons they placed in our hearts !
