Sharon Kay Warner

JUN 11, 1944 - MAR 5, 2009

Services for Sharon Kay Warner will be at 10:00 A.M. Monday, March 9, 2009 at Bible Baptist Church in Hornbeck. Burial will follow at Prewitt's Chapel Cemetery in Hornbeck. Visitation will be at the church. Monday at 9:00 A.M. until service time.

Sharon was a resident of Mart, Texas, when she went home to be with her Lord, Jesus Christ on March 5, 2009 after a short illness.

Sharon was born in Many, Louisiana, the daughter of Pinkus and Dinah Spears. She leaves behind her husband of 44 years, Richard A. Warner, Jr., of Mart, Texas, two sons, Richard A Warner, III of Grand Prairie, Texas and SSG Michael A. Warner of Fort Bragg, North Carolina; two grandchildren, Brooke J. Warner of Burleson, Texas and Logan R. Warner of Hope Mills, North Carolina; her parents, Pinkus and Dinah Spears of Hornbeck, Louisiana; and her brother, Donald Spears and his family of Hornbeck, Louisiana.

Sharon, due to her father's work as a heavy equipment operator, attended 20 schools in 12 years and graduated from High School in Rolling Fork, Mississippi. Warm, smiling, friendly and outgoing, she never met a stranger. She was a licensed beautician for many years but found her true calling as an artist and miniaturist- her miniature creations are proudly owned and displayed by hundreds. Working for her Lord, she taught Children's Sunday School and was a church leader as Sunday School Director, Women on Missions Director, and Vacation Bible School Director.

As the wife of a career military officer, Sharon lived in Louisiana, Massachusetts, Greece, Texas, Indiana, Hawaii, and Oklahoma. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Dear Aunt Dinah and Uncle Pinkus. I am sorry to hear the loss of Sharon. I never got to know Sharon well, due to us both being so far from home much of the time, but from what I have heard of her she was a wonderful daughter, mother and a beautiful christian lady. I know you will miss her but God has her in his loving arms and she is with Grandma, Grandpa, and the rest of the family that is gone on before. Our little family group is getting smaller on this earth but our circle in heaven is growing larger. I know she waits for you and her family just over the rainbow. God bless you all and keep you in his loving care while you grieve your loss and give you the courage to know she is still in our hearts, just gone for a little while until we meet again. Bless Donald and his family in dealing with the loss of his sister. Bless her husband, children and grandchildren. May wonderful memories of her stay with you forever. Loving you all. Margie

Richard & Family,\r\nAlthough I only knew Sharon through her miniatures and our exchange group I will truly miss her. She was certainly a talented and generous miniaturist. The gifts we have all received from her will be even more cherished and precious to us.\r\nGail St. Clair\r\nChristmas in July\r\nngsolfot

Richard, I work for the Zweifels and they informed me about the death of Sharon. I cannot tell you how saddened I was to hear it. She was so happy and cherry and it was such a pleasure to have her working with us in Texas. I know that she will be missed but she did leave a lot of good deeds here on earth and the Lord had other plans for her now. God Bless you and your family, you are in our thoughts & prayers.
