Dear Mrs. Federkeil and Family, \r\nour deepest sympathy for your loss. We just heard of Jim's passing ... we know him from his 'sports days' in Kaiserslautern, and remember him as a most amicable, friendly, and helpful person that was always ready to go the extra mile for a friend. A true 'farm boy', as he liked to call himself. We will miss him dearly.\r\nRalf & Ute Huber

Marion, my sincere sympathy to you the rest of your family...I was deeply sadden when I received the news of Jim's passing. I worked with Jim while we both were assigned to 415th BSB, in Kaiserslautern, Germany. He was a very liked person because of his joval personality. He had a sense of humor that was unmatched. I also enjoyed being around him because I was bound to get a good laugh. May he rest in peace! Take care....\r\nWith much respect always\r\nTony Jones
