Rebecca, Robert and Mary,\r\nWe know how your hearts must be broken, there is no greater love than the love of a wonderful mother. God gave you that, but now he has called her home. WE all know how sick she was and the pain she went through, God has now given her a Crown of Glory, and she will never have pain or sorrow again.....What a Blessing she was for all who knew her. She was a true Christian and there was no pretend with Murlene. She had that sweet spirit of God within her, she always had a smile on her face and something good to say about everyone. She was my friend and I loved her.\r\nMay God give comfort to your hearts in this time of sorrow.\r\nWe love you all,\r\nWilliam and Velva Behan
