Betty and I wish express our deepest heartfelt sympathy to all the family. May the good Lord bring peace to all of you. As for Nelta Ruth, we know that she is safely at rest in the home that God has prepared for her. \r\n\r\nIt is as the apostle Paul said, \r\n\r\n"\"For we know that if the earthly tent which is our house is torn down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.\" \r\n\r\n\r\nLove always, \r\n\r\n\r\nBuddy and Betty Martin

To all her family, our heartfelt sympathy for your loss. Growing up and riding the bus with her two small boys, she was always the sweetest person when we met. Then I married a distant cousin. Even though we didn't visit much, her light was shining through every time we ran into each other. My mother-in-law, Katie O'Banion Bartlett, sure thought a lot of her. She and Aunt Cleola were 1st cousins. Again, Lloyd & our family extend our sympathy to you and yours. \r\n\r\nBarbara & Lloyd Bartlett

My dear beloved maw, \r\n\r\nAs I sit here thinking of you and all you meant to me there is one thing that resonates in my mind about you. When I married your baby boy, Jeff, I had heard all the horror stories of \r\n\r\n"\"mother-in-laws\" so when you treated me like I was YOUR daughter I didn't know what to think. My friends thought I was crazy for loving you so much, but I just told them you don't know MY mother-in-law and how loving and kind she is. I am just so sad that I only got 13 years with you, but they have been the best 13 years of my life!! will always keep your memory alive in Leah, Tiffany, & Brittany's hearts and minds! I will always love and miss you. \r\n\r\n\r\nLove your daughter 4ever, \r\n\r\n\r\nCynthia Marie Walker-Kay
