Words could never express my sympathy for what you are all going through right now. Although I never met Derek personally, Cassie spoke very warmly in regards to him. I trust that the Lord is taking very good care of him at this very moment. No matter the circumstances surrounding his early passing it is a huge lose and one that came too soon in our eyes and in our hearts. He has a larger purpose and the good Lord has called him home to accomplish his will. I will continue to pray for your family for strength and understanding. God bless you all.

I can't even begin to express all the sympathy I feel for you all... I knew Derek and I actually dated him for a short time. There is not one bad thing anyone could ever say about him... He was an amazing friend and did not have one mean bone in him. I know this is very hard and I will keep you in my prayers every second of the day. There is one thing that I will always remember and that is his big smile and ability to make everyone around smile. Again... I am very sorry for this loss and I am here for you if you need anything...\r\n\r\nWE ALL LOVE YOU DEREK!! SAVE US A PLACE IN HEAVEN AND WATCH OVER US ALL!!
