To NaTasha & Family;\r\n My deepest sympathy is extended to you and your family. I met you once as a little girl and I'm sure that you have matured as a beautiful woman and will miss your Dad, greatly. I am Lynne's aunt Michele and I have fond memories of your father coming home on Army leave when I was just a little girl. I am now 53 years old. He was always so sweet and kind to us children and had such an infectious laugh. I learned, very late, of his illness and passing. God doesn't allow for long-suffering and didn't want your Dad to labor long. People will say to you, \"You'll get over his passing\", but really all that happens is that you learn to \"live with it\". Take good care of yourself and your family.\r\nPeace & Blessings to You,\r\nMichele Pinder
