My heart can not put into words how sorrow I'm feel. I worked with Tara's mother, Charlotte, for 20 years and I had the pleasure of watching Tara and brother Chris grow up. I remember how they both gave Charlotte fits, as kids usually do. They were so funny. \r\n\r\nTara was always such a sweet and pretty girl that grew up to be a beautiful young woman with an equally beautiful heart. I hope now that Tara has found Peace and Contentment of heart.\r\n\r\nI know the Lord will be working overtime to help this family through their time of grief. \r\n\r\nCharlotte, you know I Love You and I'm always here if you need anything...\r\n\r\nAlways,\r\n"Peanut"

Looking back through the years, I will remember Tara as a sweet and loving friend. Tara was a big part of my childhood and teenage years as we grew up together. We had so many fun times, so much laughter, and sometimes tears. From the time our bunny died in kindergarden and we cried through the national anthem at school to getting in trouble for picking on Chris (sorry Chris!) to broken hearts as teenagers. Tara was a free spirit who loved her family and friends with her whole heart, and we all loved her just as much. I will miss her, but I will always remember how much she meant to me. I know that she loved the Lord and I trust that she is now in His arms. \r\n\r\nMs. Charlotte and Chris, I pray that the Lord gives you comfort and peace that only He can provide. \r\n\r\nLove, \r\n\r\nKim
