My memories of Uncle Bob are long and lasting. He served as did I in combat and this is a bond unbreakable. I always admired his service to our country and his selfless volunteering. You will be missed, Uncle Bob.

To my Aunt Eva, I'm sorry I couldn't be there with you today, I really wanted to give you a hug. May God bless you and help you in your time of sorrow.\r\nI will miss my Godfather & uncle, Uncle Bob. He was a great guy and I always think of him as a big teddy bear who was always very kind to me. I'll never forget the time he was visiting at my house when I was a teenager and I was playing the piano for my older sister to sing a song for him. Uncle Bob thought I was playing an Irish song because he was a bit hard of hearing, but I was playing \"Voices of Spring,\" and while my sister was singing that song, her dog was howling, and Uncle Bob was singing an Irish song.\r\nI will miss you Uncle Bob. God bless you and keep you.
