James Otis Cook

AUG 6, 1942 - AUG 17, 2020

James Otis Cook, 78, of Leesville, LA, passed away on August 17, 2020. He, lovingly known as Jim, was born on August 6, 1942 to his parents Otis Cook and Annabelle (Peake) Cook. He honorably served over 28 years in the United States Army, retiring with the rank of Sergeant Major. Jim completed two combat tours in Vietnam for which he was awarded a Bronze Star for his heroic actions.

Jim lived a full life as a husband, father, and caring friend. He was a farm boy at heart and enjoyed collecting coins, watching Westerns, and socializing with friends at this favorite diner.

James is preceded in death by his parents and daughter, Brandy Cook.

Friends and family are welcome for visitation on Friday, August 21, 2020, at Labby Memorial Funeral Home Chapel in Leesville between 11AM and 1:30 PM, followed by graveside services in the Central Louisiana Veterans Cemetery at 2 PM.

Words of comfort may be expressed to the Cook Family at www.labbymemorial.com

You will be missed Jimbo you have been a faithful friend for many years Billy is lost without you , it's very hard when you don't get to say goodbye, I know there are lots of loyal coffee drinkers from BJ's and Kim's there and there's no more pain. We will miss you and I'm sure we will think of you often and remember the good times !
