What a dear dear friend! I can't believe you've passed over, but glad I have one more angel and friend watching over me. We had some absolutely amazing laughs and memories working together for 11 years, and then remaining close friends after. My mom loved you as well, and I know you two are visiting again. Love and miss you! My deepest sympathy to all who loved her.

Jackie, we have loved and admired you from the 1st time we met, back in 1969. Ever so grateful for all the great times we shared with you and Coby. I thank God for the bond shared by you and Coby, the boys and Stacy always looked forward to seeing you both, or talking on the phone, the cards and letters thru the years. You will be really missed, it's not gonna be the same. So you rest now in the arms of our Lord and Savior, Coby, Annie Mae,, your Niece Stacy, they will welcome you in God's Kingdom. Heaven has welcomed Another Angel.

On behalf of Pastor Ronald Jarden and the Mt Zion Missionary Baptist Church we would like to offer our condolences to the family. Mother Coby was a faithful member who loved her Pastor and church Family. She stood firm on her faith and her words. She will truly be missed by our church family but we don't weep as those who have no hope because we stand firm on the word of God absent from the body but present with the Lord! Until we meet again! Love you Mother Pastor Ronald and Lady LaDonna Jarden
