It is often hard to find peace and comfort when someone you love dearly has passed. Peace, Prayers and Blessings to all my family in this time of loss. Uncle Arthur never met a stranger and no matter when you saw him he would bring a smile to your face. Always had a kind word or a joke to ease any troubled heart. And even in admonishment he was able to do it in a way that would make any man smile. I know the pain I feel is a hundred fold for his loving wife my Aunt Emma. To Aunt Emma, wishing you peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your heart. May you be comforted by the outpouring of love surrounding you.

Unk I see God called for you to come home. I'm so happy I was given the chance to introduce you to my family and my family to you at the family reunion. I'll forever remember everything you shared with me about our faith, values and morals. As far back as I can remember I've always seen you carry yourself with strength and always hello your head up high I never could tell if you had something heavy on your shoulders because you never dropped the crown off your head. I will cherish every time we made time to share the same space or reach out through the phone and for that I will forever be inspired. I love you and am proud too be born too this tribe, send my regards to my granny and the rest of the elders. until we meet again I'll do my best to be the man you are. R.I.P

My husband, Freddy Stratton, had such a great friendship with Arthur for about 25 years while they both worked at Walmart. Each one of them had so much fun making the other one laugh. Whenever I came through the store, Arthur would have something funny to say about Freddy, and that gave me a big laugh, too! We both appreciated his huge smile, warm greeting, and sweet spirit. We are so thankful that God placed him in the most perfect place to bring so much joy to so many people. We appreciate, so much, his service in the military. May God bless his sweet family.
