missed; he will be missed daily by so many until the glorious day when we are all able to meet up in the sky again with our Lord, Jesus Christ. One of Butch's favorite scriptures was Matthew 25:40. "And the King will say, "I tell you the truth, when you did it to least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me." Dad always felt like he was the least in the kingdom, but to his wife, children, family, and friends, he is the greatest. Butch will live on through his children and wife. His humor will live on through his son, Kevin. His intelligence, compassion, and "butchy-lips" will live on through his daughter, Taylor. His love for the game of softball, and his quick wit will live on through his daughter, Tori. Lastly, his love for his family, his patient endurance, and his heart will live on through his wife, Kim. Butch was a carpenter, an electrician, a father, a coach, a comedian, a husband, a son, a brother, and a friend, but most importantly, Butch will always and forever be the child of the Living and Almighty God! May we each be a shining beacon for the glory of God, Amen!

He is survived by his wife, Kim Prell of Anacoco; sons, Kevin Moreland Prell of Anacoco, daughters, Tori Dahlhoff & husband, Kanon of Hornbeck and Taylor Prell of Anacoco; father, Henry Prell, Jr., of Anacoco; brothers, Billy Prell of Anacoco and Shawn Prell of Anacoco; sisters, Brenda Wileman of Rosepine, and Gena Prell of Harrison, AR.
